and another from DeSales. 11-6. Anything can happen in softball.

Rocco Di Napoli, the "Little Napoleon" of the North Jersey Silent Club, which was the host did a grand job as General Chairman of the affair. It seems he was all over Paterson seeing everything was going smoothly. Aply assisting him were Richard Myers. Herbert Alpren. Allen Pease, Michael Bove, Abe Simon and James Burke. Stanley Lenner, the popular member of the host club, was much in evidence at the club the Friday night before hostilities started on the various diamonds.

Saturday a gala picnic and outing was held at the Preakness Pool in Totowa and then in the evening, a reception and dance was held at Lazzara Music Hall.

Philadelphia Silent Athletic Club will host next year's games and West Penn. Athletic Club of the Deaf in 1951.
